Old business- Tying up loose ends, charity class is still being reconciled. Jennifer will be billing those who added the class if they did not pre-enter. Awaiting a check from SJPHC. Overall, club made money and another successful show is in the books! The Diane Strickland memorial award went to Danette in a random draw; it was a very emotional moment for all. Goosebumps and tears as Julie read the tribute and Jeri presented the award.

Also discussed the importance of all club members to work together at the show to resolve issues as they arise. We are all on the same team and should behave that way. This is our club; we work hard year round to put on a beautiful show that we want people to go away with a positive experience.

SJPHC and NCPHC working together has been unanimously a great team. The awards and exhibitors bags were a hit and on-budget thanks to Kristi Duncan.
